

Public Meeting

Stop cuts in Mental Health Reinstate Karen Reissmann

Fight for the right to speak out against privatisation and cuts.

Campaign update with speakers
Karen Reissmann, victimised trade unionist
Graham Pink, whistleblower from 17 years ago
Alan Hartman, Manchester User Network

Monday 14th April.

7.15pm at Radisson Hotel, Peter St
(Old Free Trade Hall building)

Meeting followed by free “thank you” Social

Open to all the UNISON health conference delegates and visitors in Manchester for their conference, mental health users and strikers and all Manchester supporters to update them on campaign followed by a social to thank all for their support in our dispute.

Hosted by UNISON Manchester Community and Mental Health branch.
supported by UNISON National Health Service Executive

National Lobby of Parliament on Wednesday May 7th called by UNISON nationally

This has been called to ask MPs to sign the Early Day Motion 443 calling for Karen's reinstatement. There will be a meeting in the House of Commons from 1 – 4pm on the day chaired by Tony Lloyd, chair of the Labour Parliamentary Party.

Postcards are available as part of this campaign to MPs - free from address above. Also a standard letter to send to your MP asking them to meet you on the day is available on the website www.reinstate-karen.org Please make sure you send a letter off to your MP, even if you have to cancel your appointment later.

Transport available via Clare on 07825 648 118